Our time to Shine

Mountaineer

Meg Thorp and Kim Angle trying to blend in Provincetown.

Rachel Gaskin, Cassie Mangsen, and Ian Campbell are set to get wet on Rain Day.

The year 2000 marks a significant time in our lives. It is the time when we will take the memories of our childhood and high school years with us as we prepare to enter a world of opportunities. We set different goals for ourselves, yet we share the potential to become all that we have dreamed.

Our Time...

Becky Latka, Nicole Prunier, Meg Anderson, Greg Hayes, Chris Hastings, and Natalie Loconto celebrate peace and love.

Senior girls join in the marches of the sixties.

Where's Rachel?

In today's society, we are challenged to grow and become great people. Now that we've graduated high school, it is time for us to make ourselves known to the world. Being the first class of the new millenium, we set the example for those to follow. The future is bright and it belongs to us. This is our time.

...To Shine

Casey Kelley needs friends like Sarah Ricardi and Tracy Caron to take care of him at the blood drive.

This group just wants to clown around for the camera.

Lauren Bresnehan, Lynne Lecuyer, Kristin Rayla, and Andrea Pellegrino plan to sleep through all of their classes on Pajama Day.

The freshmen have a ways to go before they become Jedi masters.

Sandy Zywar is glowing with spirit.

Juniors soar into the future.

These freshmen are stuck riding the bus.

Homecoming

The party's just begun for these pretty, pretty girls.

Oh come on, Dan, the music isn't that bad.

Don't worry girls. Our dates will be here soon.

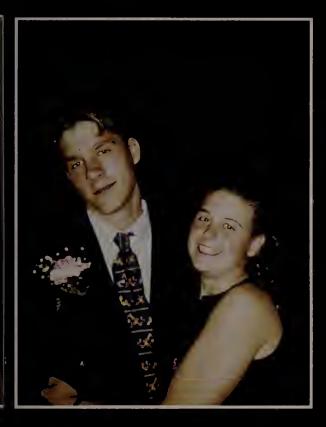

Amy Hoglund, Billy Fogarty, Yaran Drawbridge, and Gia Annunziata before the big dance.

Friends Chris Depasse and Paul Kirschbaum say, "How you doing?"

Tom Lipka and Sarah Hackler having a great time dancing.

Nicole and Meg show us their tongues.

Lindsay McCracken, Steph Driscoll, Christina Lee, and Jodi Ricker catch some fresh air in the hall.

Winter Carnival

Up close with Garry Dow and Erin Delorey.

Cheerleaders shout it out for Mountaineer Hockey.

Sarah Nagle's golf skills are up to par.

Number 1, Mike Janosco, sneaks the ball away from the other team.

Stephanie Sigler smacks the ball with ease.

Scott White hits a home run for the Mountaineers.

The girls of basketball celebrate their victory.

Sports

David Hanaford leaves his competition in the dust as he sprints down a hill.

This unlucky CCHS wrestler is no match for a Mountaineer.

These couples enjoy a photographic moment the afternoon of the dance.

Rachel Gaskin and her date pose before entering the dance.

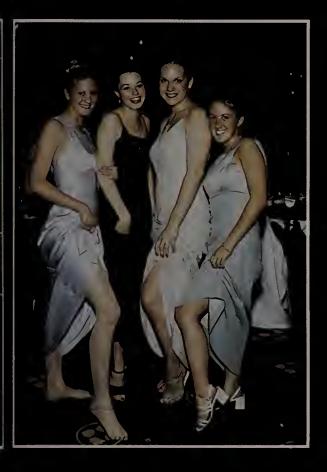

Lucky court ladies Sarah Walker and Meg Anderson with Prom Queen Sarah Nagle and their dates.

Stephanie Sigler seems surprised to be having so much fun at the dance with friends Amy D'Eramo, Jules, Christine Ressler and Jess O'Connor.

12 Opening

Meg Thorp, Kim Cardaci, Casey Critchley and Jodi Ricker just showing a little skin.

These couples can't wait for the big night.

Junior Prom

Mr. Pedone eases up with his favorite students: Brian Gentilotti, Chris Cadwallader, Adam Roesch, Steve Fernstrom, Matt Smalley, and Tom Nelson.

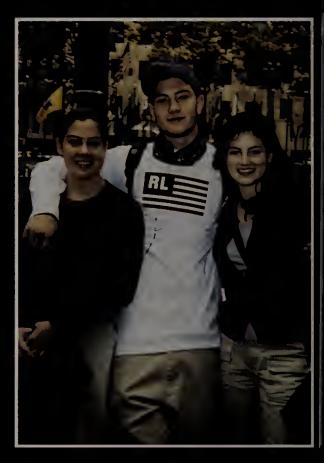

Let's party on the dance floor.

Opening 13

Looks like these seniors are being dragged into the mud by the freshmen at Spring Fling.

Katie Bagdis, Jon Spero, and Emily Heininger pose at Rockefellar Center on the art and drama trip to New York City.

This group says "Aloha" on the Close Up trip to Hawaii.

Seniors

SENIOR YEAR HAS ARRIVED AND IT IS FI-NALLY OUR TIME TO SHINE. WE HAVE ALL GROWN SINCE FRESHMEN YEAR AND HAVE UNIFIED AS A CLASS. FROM OUR VERY FIRST SPIRIT WEEK TO OUR SENIOR PROM, WE HAVE SHARED MANY GOOD TIMES AND HAVE ENCOUNTERED MANY NEW PEOPLE WHO WE WILL NEVER FOR-GET. AFTER GRADUATION, WE WILL BE FACED WITH MANY DIFFICULT CHOICES. SOME OF US MAY GO OFF TO COLLEGE, SOMEMAY DECIDE TO TRAVEL FOR A YEAR, WHILE OTHERS WILL HEAD OFF TO THE WORKING WORLD. THE KNOWLEDGE WE HAVE ACQUIRED HERE AT WRHS WILL HELP US MEET THE ROAD TO SUCCESS IN THE FUTURE. WE HAVE EVOLVED AND MATURED FROM ALL OUR HARDSHIPS AND GOOD TIMES THROUGHOUT HIGH SCHOOL. THESE ARE THE MEMORIES AND TIMES THAT MAKE US SHINE.

Take a look into the Future ...

Nicole DiNoia, Beth Dymek and Karen Donelson wanted to take a vacation from their jobs. Nicole was busy in New York being a MTV Veejay. She even got a chance to interview the hottest new Backstreet Boy, Charlie Rabe and the Tyler Culberson Band. Karen had been trying to cure the problems of the psychologically ill. Karen, Stephaine Hayes, Nissa Hauer, Kerry Quinlivan, Kristal McGovern, Andrea Pellegrino, Lauren Bresnahan, and Alicia Rodriguez teamed up to form the leading psychological practice in Europe. Nicole, Beth and Karen had made plans to take a trip around the world in the year 2010. They decided that they would depart from their home town. But Beth was busy with her job in Boston so they decided to meet her there. Unexpectedly, they ran into many people from high school.

Before they left for Logan Airport, they stopped at the new Wachusett Regional High School which was designed by Carl Quist and Alissa Dufresne. There was a regional teachers meeting that day in the Media Center; here they ran into seventh grade teacher and novelist, Joseph Bigelow, foods teacher, Kelly Harrington, kindergarten teacher, Shannon Kilcoyne, music teachers Sandra Zywar and Courtney Heath, and the regionals new swim coach/teacher, Julianne Sisley. Local preschool teachers also attended the meeting: Erin Blanchard, Patricia Murdock, and Amanda Blouin. Students were also having sports physicals with pediatrician, Jessica Motville, and nurse Lindsey Early. Also in the nurses office were speech therapists Melissa McGuirk and Tracy Caron. Before they eft, they wanted to try the chocolate chip cookies that they had missed all these years. To their surprise, they found Adam Wilson as the newest "lunch lady".

The girls realized they were running late, so they jumped into the car, and took off for Boston. On the radio, they heard the latest hits from Matt Mysliwicz, Rebecca Alty, Jaime Halsdorff, and Gabrielle Hesselberg, played by DJ Jennifer Smith. As they were speeding to the groovy tunes, they heard a parade of sirens. Sergeant Lindsay Congdon, Lieutenant Deb Joslin, and Lieutenant Matt McQuade were the first to pull them over. The girls were aughing uncontrollably at the one man band, Joe Sosnoff who was performing on the island of the highway. Not knowing what the girls were up to, the officers called for back up. Next to arrive on the scene were State Troopers, Brian Gentilotti and Andrew Gaspie. Even an ambulance showed up and Sarah Walker jumped out. The girls bags were searched, but all that was found were trendy fashions by Shannon Leoni and Brooke James. The troopers also ound best-selling novels by Greg Hayes, Jonathan Hall, and Jackie Bianco. They also found various childrens toys tesigned by Sarah Nagle.

After the fiasco, Nicole and Karen made their way to Fenway Park where they were told to meet Beth. At the park, they saw he last inning of the Red Sox exhibition game against the Arizona Diamondbacks. Amazingly, they saw Chris Hastings as the opponents third baseman. They also saw Adam Najemy playing second base next to Nomar Garciaparra. Suddenly, Adam got hit in the ribs from a line drive. Matt Grauwiler, the Red Sox althetic rainer, ran to Adam's side. To their surprise, the caring general manager, Christina Tashjian, arrived on the field.

After the game was over, the girls met Beth at a hot dog stand. The million dollar hot dog stand was owned by Adam Borge. Beth, an occupational therapist, had come to the game with one of her patients, a stroke victim. Nurses Adam Olson, Christina Lee, and Alicia Ciari were with Beth and the patient. The girls grabbed Beth's bags from Adam's BMW, and were on their way.

Finally, they arrived at Logan Airport. Once they checked in, the girls waited in the terminal for their flight to California to be called. They went into the airport restaurant, "Ben's Grille". They wanted to compliment the owner on how tasty the food was. Old classmate, Ben Salluce, came to their table and treated them with free dessert. On the television in the restaurant, they saw famous actress, Lindsay Monroe being interviewed by Steve Fernstrom and Matt Smalley on their hit talk show. They also saw the sports report on ESPN which was anchored by Jill Portanova and Nicholas DeCarlo. They were reporting on the Bruins and there was also a statment made by Stephanie Sigler, the PR director. On CNN, Lauren Haffty was broadcasting the nightly news. CNN was being produced by Krystal DiMatteo.

After some chocolate cake, they boarded the flight. As they were sitting on the plane, an announcement was made. Cordula Hahn, the airplane mechanic said that the flight would be delayed five minutes because the luggage door wouldn't close. The movie on the plane was "Bad Boys II" directed by Dan Fox and James Lehans. The film starred Tynan Pierce and Tim LaFratta. The girls fell asleep after the movie and woke up at their crossover in Las Vegas. The girls had two hours before their flight to L.A. so they took a walk. They looked up and saw a billboard advertising Meg Thorp, Jodi Ricker and Nicole Dajie as showgirls in the classy new Las Vegas club. Also seen were Thomas Ahronian and Jonathan Lukason performing with their band.

Back on the plane to L.A., Nicole recognized Lindsay Bojanowski who was using her lap top created by Michael Whiteman and Erik Erikson. She was using a graphic design program that was crafted by Jessica Duschesnes and Megan McCuen. Lindsay was headed to L.A. to open her new corporation with Brian Maguire and Eric Hudson. They also ran into superstars Sandra Robbins and Heather Brazauskas, and their make-up artist Sarah O'Donoghue. Before they left for Los Angeles they saw Brandan Hunt delivering packages to a movie set.

They arrived in Las Angeles late that night, and went straight to the four star resort, "The Sand Castle Hotel" run by Dave Meola and Anthony Hunt. The girls got a good night sleep and ate at the "Waffle Palace" the next morning where the chef was Rachel Gaskin. They ran into accountants Erin Delorey and Brenda White who were also enjoying breakfast. After their delicious waffles, Karen, Beth, and Nicole went to Disney Land and Sea World. Suddenly, the entire park lost all electricity due to a power surge and master electrician, Ryan Morse took care of the problem. The girls went on their way. In Disney, they bought their tickets from Mike Janosco. Inside, Nick Hobbs, the travelling clown was making balloon animals. They also watched a magic show peformed by world renowed magician, Andrew Polewarczyk.

At Sea World, they saw the sea lion show that marine biologist, Kathy Lugo, was narrating. They liked the show so much they decided to stay for the next one, the dolphin show. The marine biologist in charge of this show was Jessica O'Connor. Knowing that the dophin, Flapper, was pregnant, Blake Davisson, Karen Poirer and Kirsten Brobeck, the veterinarians were on hand to monitor the dolphin's health. After the show, Jessica told them about her new restaurant that she started with Amy D'Eramo called "AJ's Bar and Grille". The girls decided to check it out. They spent two more days in California before heading North.

The flight to Alaska was fairly quick and they decided to immediatley go shopping for skis because they heard about good deals on equipment. The giant ski shop was owned by John Pancare, Jen Lula, Nicole Prunier and Becky Latka. After their massive purchase of skis, Nicole Prunier promised to ship the skis and snowboards to Switzerland for their ski trip three weeks later. The skis they bought were rumored to also be owned and used by pro skier, Lindsay McCracken. After leaving the shop, the girls went on a guided fishing trip with Doug Berryhill's company, "D.B. Ice Fishing". Jodi Miller, a marine biologist, led the tour to spread her knowledge to them.

They spent the night in an igloo and headed to Japan the next morning. They slept all the way to Tokyo and arrived at sun rise. Since they had been sitting on a plane for so long, they needed to get some exercise. They found "Ryan Sobol's shop of Kung-Fu". They went inside and found Jedi Master's; Travis Thompson and Karl Anderson leading a class. Nicole, Beth, and Karen joined in. They descovered the class was too advanced and decided to take a private class with Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle, Ben Stevens. Nicole, Karen, and Beth were taking a tour of the Mitsubishi factory when they realized the owners Noah Cummings and James McCready were their old classmates. They introduced the girls to the new car designer, David Fry. They also ran into a school field trip taking a tour. The teachers there were Kim Cardaci, Kim Decelles, Allison Flink, Brittany Miner and Stephanie St. Jean. While touring, they saw automotive mechanics Louis Peck, Justin Nichols, Daniel French, and Jason Aubin.

After leaving Tokyo, the girls headed to Italy. On the runway, they saw Andy Fillow painting the teeth on the airplane. On the plane, they saw Erin Falk who was a supermodel heading to Milan, Derek Dagostino, computer programmer Peter Warrington, and zoologist Heather Bassett. In Milan, they saw Thomas Stuart who was a fashion designer. He took them to lunch with Pope Garry Dow in Rome. Joining them for lunch was the President of the U.S, Lisa Miracle, "The Dude", Christopher Shepard, and the ruler of the world, Edward McTigue. The delicious food was, prepared by Jason Carbonneau and Cassandra Mangsen. The girls visited a cathedral where Eugene Sokolovsky was playing the organ and Janelle Chiavaroli was preaching. After leaving Rome, they saw five FBI agents, Gino Gangai, Timothy Westerman, Thomas Valeri, Kimberly Gordon, and William Swenson escorting criminals. The lawyers present were Robert Levine, Heidi Malpass, and Emily Bovaird.

Two days later, the girls drove to Germany. On the way, they saw farmer Jeffery Sobol on his tractor tending to his crops. At the farm, Kim Chapman was training horses. Also on the farm they saw Michael Almonte working as a carpenter, building a new barn for Jeff. They also saw a forest fire. Battling the blaze were Nathan Faneuf, and Robert Lussier. The girls passed an airforce base and saw airforce pilots Tom Gershbacher and Sean Picotte testing planes. Suddenly, a giant, colorful parrot flew at the car windshield. The girls realized they were at the famous bird sanctuary where they saw Meghan Anderson, Lynn Kelley, and Leigh-Ann Keil taking photographs. Translating at the sanctuary for the tours was German translator Maria Gerlach. Jeff Kristoff was donating money to buy more birds for the sanctuary. In the gift shop, the girls saw fabulous paintings of some of the worlds best painters, Amanda Trudeau, Marcy Crowley, and Jonathan Williams. During their car ride, they also passed a car dealership owned by Jason Hanaford, a salon owned by Alicia Kenworthy, and a bakery owned by Scott Parslow.

At a club which was designed by Lynne Lecuyer and Andrew Layte, they danced to music by Pearl Jam guitarist Mark Bradley, and radio DJ Derek Grimm. Other European bands managed by Lindsay Gwyther were also playing. In the other bands were singers Kristen Sherman, Heather Bialecki, and Amanda Lavorgna. On the street outside the club Luke Massouh was playing jazz music. Around the club the girls saw Kathryn Ferris, Jeb Penka, Danielle Anas, Leigh-Ann Egan, and Casey Critchley having a good time. After hanging out in the club, Beth, Nicole, and Karen headed to dinner where they ingested some bad strusel. The girls were rushed to the hospital by paramedics Sarah Eiseman and James Malone. At the hospital, Doctor Nicole Capite diagnosed the girls illness as food poisoning and Elizabeth Casson, Jennifer Mioglionico, and Candace Craig were nurses on staff that night. Bryan Myers and Stephaine Driscoll were doing medical research and Sarah Hackler was engineering the new wing of the hospital with Arianne Brooks. Also working in the same hospital were doctors Any Hoglund and Charlotte Brumleve. Art therapist Bonnie Wetzel was helping patients in the rehabiltion center along with byschologists Kathryn FitzGerald and Sarah Weagle. The girls were taken care of by nurse Victoria Scott until they were healthy to travel. The only person the girls didn't see was Claas Behrens, the famous German actor who was umored to be visiting his hometown.

When the girls were cleared of food poisoning, they hopped on a plane and headed to Aruba. On the plane hey saw Joseph Duke studying a map. They soon found out that he too was traveling around the world with ennifer Greene, Matthew Hollingshead, and Michael Pape. Once in Aruba the girls headed to a Tiki Hut to seek he holistic medicine of Reiki healer Julia Aiello (Dettloff). Joining Julie were Voodoo magicians Amity Siegman and Sonia Johns. After their experience, Beth, Nicole, and Karen went to get their ear pierced from Angela Leone. The next stop was Maimi, there they met up with Amy Lawrence, who was counting her money poolside with her Cabana boy Jose. They also saw Tracy Nartowt, Angela Warren, and Emma Madsen just having fun under the sun. As the girls took a walking tour through Maui, they came across an art store, run by none other than old classmates Daniel Tain and Craig Bull. The girls also found art work by Erika JorJorian in the store. In the store they heard he most beautiful music composed by Brian Nickerson. The girls decided they needed a night to rest from all their raveling, so they just hung out in the hotel room and decided to watch the Patriots game. They were suprised to see Kelli Waska, Sydney Mierzejewski, and Melissa Mellor as the three head cheerleaders. In the crowd were successful business owners, such as Brian Elolampi, Christina Manzios, Molly Dudley, Nathaniel Raskett, and onathan Ramsey. In charge of landscaping at the stadium was Thomas Lipka. Also in the crowd were the wifes of he rich players like Patrice Falvey and Christine Ressler. Right before they turned the television off they realized he owners of the opposing team were old classmates Caroline Ruderman, Mike Distaso, John Staudinger, and Scott White.

The next morning, the girls rented a car because they need to drive home to their highschool reunion. The girls passed a jail where parole officer Darryl Carlson was just arriving to work. The girls stopped at Virginia Beach where here were many clubs and restaurants. The first club they went to was owned and operated by Andrew Halloran, and Nichole Boyer. While dancing, Karen bumped into Kevin Sullivan, Andrea Bohdiewicz, and Kyle Robinson who were on vacation from their busy jobs. On the way back to Massachusetts, the three girls stopped in Times Square o that Nicole could pick up her pay check.

Finally back at home, the reunion had just begun. The girls heard stories of children, families and successful careers. In the hall, they ran into Jonathan Spero, Jeremy Bourassa, and David Hanaford who were all happy with heir lives. After dinner, the girls saw artist Jennifer Woehl, vetranarian James Bombard, and 3-D programmer Sean Adams. After a great time of sharing memories and good times, the girls ran into one last classmate, Sarah Ricardi.

Worn out from their travels, the girls returned to their separate homes. On the way, Nicole, Beth and Karen ealized how fortunate the class of 2000 was to have the experiences and memories to last them a lifetime.

Underclassmen

OUR YEARS HERE AT WACHUSETT WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN THE SAME WITHOUT THE UNDERCLASSMEN. ALTHOUGH THEY MAY HAVE GOTTEN IN THE WAY SOME-TIMES WITH THEIR BULGING BACK-PACKS THEY HAVE ALWAYS SUPPORTED US AND CONTRIBUTED TO MAKING OUR TIME HERE AT WRHS THE GREATEST. THEY HAVE ENCOURAGED USIN SPORTS, CLUBS, AND IN THE CLASSROOM, AND SUPPLIED A LOT OF GOOD LAUGHS. EVEN THOUGH THEY ARE NOT GRADUATING ALONG WITH US THEY WILL ALWAYS BE REMEM-BERED. WE WISH THEM THE BEST OF LUCK IN THE FUTURE AND WANT TO THANK THEM FOR LETTING US SHINE.

Faculty

OUR EXPERIENCES AT WACHUSETT WOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN THE SAME WITHOUTTHE FACULTY AND STAFF. THEY HAVE ALWAYS LOOKED OUT FOR OUR BEST INTERESTS AND TREATED US WITH RESPECT. THE FACULTY SUPPORTED US AT SPORTS EVENTS AND BECAME INVOLVED IN THE STUDENT BODY. THEY HAVE TAUGHT US MANY VALUABLE LESSONS TO SUCCEED IN LIFE. ABOVE ALL, THEY BECAME OUR FRIENDS, FOR THEIR DOORS WERE ALWAYS OPEN, EVEN AFTER 2:15. WITHOUT THEM WE WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO SHINE.

Guiding Lights

Thomas G. Pandiscio Principal

Dear Seniors:

On behalf of our entire school community, I want to express my gratitude for all that you have contributed to Wachusett. Like the many classes before you, you have come together from our five towns and become an interesting and diverse senior class. Each of you have made a contribution to the rich mosaic that is Wachusett.

We hope that you have had a good four years with us and that you will fondly remember your years at Wachusett. I have enjoyed being your Principal and I hope that we have created a school that has helped you to develop as a learner and as an individual.

My best wishes for a great future!

Sincerely,

Thomas & Parlise

Events

WITHOUT EVENTS, THE LEGACY OF THE MOUNTAINEER WOULD NOT BE THE SAME. THROUGHOUT OUR FOUR YEARS HERE WE HAVE LABORED ON FLOATS, DANCED TIL WE DROPPED, AND YELLED AT THE TOP OF OUR LUNGS AT PEP RALLIES. WE CAN ALL REMEMBER OUR FIRST WINTER CARNIVAL OR ONE OF THE MANY PLAYS HERE AT WRHS. EVERYONE HAS BECOME INVOLVED AND SHARED GOOD TIMES THROUGH THESE EVENTS. WE'VE REACHED NEW LEV-ELS IN OUR FRIENDSHIPS AND GOTTEN TO KNOW SO MANY MORE PEOPLE. EVENTS HAVE PLAYED AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN MAKING US WHO WE ARE TODAY AND EN-ABLING US TO SHINE.

Highlights

Spirit Week Festivities October 12-16, 1999

There are only a handful of days when a student can say that he or she actually enjoys school. These days are the last day of school and Spirit Week. Spirit Week is one of the only times when most students cut loose and have fun at school. When else would you see guys dressed up in pink bunny pajamas or girls in hula skirts and Hawaiian leis? This year's spirit days included Pajama Day, Hawaiian Day, Rain Day, and Green & White Day. To end Spirit Week all of the students were herded into the gymnasium for an hour of absolute chaos and pandemonium.

Right: Erin Delorey and Garry Dow rest from dancing to say cheese. Below: Seth Delorey and Steph Driscoll pose for the camera before the big night.

Main St. Parade and Football Game

To continue Spirit Week, the Main Street Homecoming Parade is always a favorite among students. It's a great way for a class to unite and work together to win the float competition. The judges never favor our senior class, however. When the parade ends, eveyone heads for the food booths, buys some munchies, and finds a seat on the bleachers to watch the annual football game. To top off Spirit Week, the annual Homecoming Dance is held Saturday night in the gymnasium. Everyone from freshman to seniors goes glam to this schoolwide event.

It's A Wonderful Life December 9-12, 1999

"Everytime a bell rings, an angel gets its wings," Zuzu Bailey (played by Dawn Horsfall), It's A Wonderful Life. Well, that was the case in Wachusett's holiday performance. The play, as usual, was yet another success. After months of hard work and dedication, the performers were able to show their true talent with confidence. And don't forget all of the backstage people that helped with the play. Without the hardworking stage crew and musicians the play would not have run as smooth as it did. Your performance, as always, did not go unnoticed. Great job everyone!

Madrigal Dinner, January 2000

January 27th, 28th, and 29th marked the annual presentation of the music department's Madrigal Dinner. The hall was filled once again with the beautiful music of the Singers, Chamber Choir, and Wind Ensemble. The dinner included a seven course meal featuring seasoned chicken. The theme for the this year's play, which was adapted by the students, was Much Ado About Nothing. Being the year 2000 made this production unforgettable - the past was united using all of the colors from previous dinners and was commemorated with a Madrigal Dinner 2000 mug.

Sports

ONE OF THE MOST EXCITING PARTS OF HIGH SCHOOL HAS BEEN THE SPORTS. WHETHER IN THE FALL, WINTER, OR SPRING SEASONS WACHUSETT ATHLETES HAVE CONTINUED TO EXCEL. MANY OF WACHUSETT'S FINEST PRACTICE DAY IN AND DAY OUT TO UP-HOLD THE LEVEL OF EXCELLENCE THAT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED HERE AT WRHS. WE'VE HAD TRIUMPHS AND DEFEATS, STATE TITLES AND TEAMS THAT NEVER GAVE UP. BUT WHETHER WE WERE SITTING ON THOSE COLD BLEACHERS CHEERING ON OUR TEAMS OR OUT THERE ON THE FIELD, SPORTS WILL ALWAYS HOLD A SPECIAL PLACE IN OUR MEMORIES AS WE'VE WATCHED EACH OTHER SHINE.

Girls' Varsity Soccer

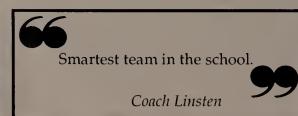

Our Wachusett girls' soccer team had a great season this year finishing eighth in the district, and second in the league. We were guided by senior captains Lindsay Monroe, Lindsay Degutis, Sarah Nagle, and Marcy Crowley. Our soccer team developed a very close-knit relationship with many friendships. We loved playing together and always had fun. Under the coaching of Rick Lindsten, we were honored with several recognitions including The Team Academic Achievement Award. Seniors Lindsay Monroe, Sarah Nagle, Marcy Crowley and sophomore Andrea Comen were all named League All Stars. Lindsay Monroe, Sarah Nagle, Andrea Comen, and junior Stacy Lukason were named Central Mass All stars. Sarah Nagle was named a State All Star. We had many memorable moments throughout this year's season including Lindsay Monroe taking out the Nashoba goalie to the point of her crying, and Marcy Crowley stopping an opponent's header from going in at the district game.

Boys' Varsity Soccer

Our 1999 boys' soccer team, led by captains Greg Hayes and Mark Bradley, had an excellent season finishing second in the League and third in the Division One District Tournament. We finished with an impressive record of 15-3-3. Other senior members including Jon Ramsey, Matt Grauwiler, Andrew Watson, Andy Fillow, Casey Kelley, Matt McQuade, and Jon Lukason were huge factors in the success of our team. Our team was recognized in several areas. Mark Bradley and Brent Plumley were Central Mass All Stars. Andy Fillow, Jon Ramsey, Brent Plumley, and Mark Bradley were named League All Stars. Trained by coaches Richard "Skip" Knight, Steve Grocia, and Dan Nordberg, we had many memborable and fun moments together. We worked hard to exceed the expectations of coaches, parents, other schools, and the media, by playing extremely well and finishing the season with a much better record than originally anticipated.

Girls' Cross Country

Our girls' cross country team had a very successful season, closing with an undefeated record of 9-0. Our team was trained by Coach Larry Jaquith "Jake," whose runners thought very fondly of him, saying, "He is an awesome coach, who's an inspiration and very helpful. Always positive no matter how we do. We will miss him next year." The seniors on our team were Jill Portanova, Deb Joslin and Leighann Carpenter. Portanova had an all around incredible year. Over the past four years she was able to improve her time by over 4 minutes. Joslin placed 10th in the District Championship which only added to an already outstanding season. Carpenter will never forget when she ran her personal record on our home course. Our team included three League All Stars, Ellen Beth, Cara Valeri, and Carly Holbrook, as well as four District All Stars, Ellen Beth, Cara Valeri, Deb Joslin and Carly Holbrook. During the state meet Ellen Beth placed 6th. We were ranked number one in the League and 2nd in the District at the end of the season. Our team was pushed and supported by team captains Jill Portanova and Deb Joslin.

Our boys' cross country team finished this year's season with a record of 10-1. We were ranked 1st in the League, 2nd in the District, and 4th in the State. Our team was guided and inspired by captains Peter Warrington and James Sullivan. We were runner-up at the Wachusett Invitational and the Bay State Invitational. Our team included three District All Stars, Tim Creedon, James Sullivan and Joe Lagare, and Two T&G All Stars, Tim Creedon and James Sullivan. Our team was coached by Brian Wallace whose dedication, support and time helped the team along the path of success. Captain Peter Warrington recalls the senior team members' memorable moments over the years saying, "We'll never forget the good times we've had the past four years; the annual run at mason Park, the Soul Food parties, the Niner, Buffalo Run, the Tracks, the Maze, Ninja, running in Hurricane Floyd, bouting it out in the cage, the St. John's course, and taking the plunge at the reservoir. We won't forget the river in the Leominster course, "the hill" at the sandy Gansett course, running the Woods Loop everyday (and in our boxers once freshman year). We'll remember running camp where Menin slept with his eyes open. We won't forget the Freshman, Sophomores, and especially the Juniors who played an enormous part in all our meets. Without them, our season would not have been as successful."

Sticking Around

Field Hockey

Our field hockey team finished with a record of 7-6-4. Our team was encouraged and strengthened by team captains Angela Warren and Tracy Caron who worked hand-in-hand with the efforts of coach Nicole Leroux. As a team we over came many obstacles which only made us stronger and helped us pull together. Our team was lead by seniors Christina Lee, who was named a T & G All Star, Mandy Boufard, Megan Cronin, Emma Madsen, Gia Annunziata, Tracy Nartowt, Angela Warren, Steph Hayes, Amy D'Eramo, Kate Gene and Tracy Caron. We will never forget the strong win we earned against Shrewsberry on our Homecoming day. Our team's secret weapon was playing Madonna's "Like a Prayer" before the start of each game to mentally prepare us. The team will never forget Mandy's courageous mask, Christina's outstanding saves in goal or when the referee asked them if "I Touch Myself" is their theme song. Our team ended their season tied for the League Championship with North Middlesex.

The combined support and encouragement of Dunphy, Coach Ron Spakauskus and Assistant Coach Dennis Lanciani lead the team to finish with a 13-6-1 record. Senior Adam Kloczkowski played hard and tried his best which greatly helped the team make it into the State Tournament. Sophomore Jeff Dymek, was a State Finalist and was 85th at the District Tournament. Freshman Dan Thorp started his Mountaineer golf career as a league medalist and placing 81st in the District Tournament. The team beat St. John's in both the District as well as the State Tournament. They also beat Sheppard Hill in the State Tournament. Volleyball

Our volleyball team finishes this year's season with a record of 13-8. Senior captains Amy Hogland and Nicole Prunier assisted Coach Burtan and Coach Reynolds in leading the team through a successful and memorable year. The team was also carried by the efforts of seniors Cassy Mangsen and Lia Carroll. Our team's most memorable game was the last home game against Shrewsbury. Not only did we play our best game that night but we came off it with a well deserved win. Amy Hogland reflects on our team's season saying, "Our goal at the beginning of the year was to improve our record from last year and to make it to the District Tournament. We accomplished both these goals." We beat Leominster for the first time in the history of our volleyball program. Every member of our team was an absolute necessity as was proven when three of the starters were unable to play do to injuries, people stepped up, and we succeeded. Our team pulled together through the many injuries during the course of the season. We worked extremely hard and had an exciting season.

First And Goal

Our main goal has always been to improve. This season we accomplished our goal as we played our best game on Thanksgiving morning when we defeated Holy Name 20-14.

Football Cheerleaders

At the head of our squad this year were captains Sydney Mierzejewski and Ann Masterman leading the rally. Other senior members included Bonnie Wetzell, Melissa Mellor, Kelli Waska, and Jessica O'Connor. Our coach, Claudette White helped us in acheiving the recognition in NCA Bid to Nationals, NCA Top Team Award, and NCA Spirit Award. Supporting the football team was a lot of fun this year for us. We worked together and although we failed to make it to tournaments due to illnesses, we have had a lot of great times together.

Rising To New Heights

Girls' Basketball

This year's team started to turn things around with the assistance of first year Varsity Coach, Peter Bogren, first year girl's coach, Dennis Vanesse, Craig Holt, Danny Reynolds and Lida Sarabeth. Our team ended the season with a record of 11-9. The team was led by captains Katie Bagdis, Casey Critchley and Tracy Nartowt and seniors Lauren Baker and Lisa Miracle. Katie reflected on the season as it came to a close saying, "this year was a 180 degree turn from the past few years. Not only did our team qualify for the district tournament, but for the first time in my four years there was a true sense of unity through out." The team had its most memorable win against the number one ranked, at the time undefeated, Shrewsbury team. The team made it through the season with smiles recalling the fun times they shared on the bus rides, during practices and games. In addition to making the district tournament and completing very well in it, two of our players were named to the Mid-Wach A League All Star team, Casey Critchley, who was also a T & G All Star, and sophomore Andrea Comen.

Boys' Basketball

Our team ended the season with a record of 3-13. This record does not accurately reflect the attitudes, efforts or determination of the players. Senior captain, Bryan Larson says, "Although our record did not show it, we battled in every game with a 'never give up' attitude. We built a strong base for a new era of Wachusett boy's sketball." The other two senior captains, Ben Salluce and Adam Najemy, felt the same. The team's seniors worked hard to keep the team facing in the right direction. At the close of the season they reflected, remembering moments they will not forget. Bryan recalls when he scored 25 points, which included 5 three pointers, two of which ended with 4-pt plays. Ben remembers scoring 14 points against Shrewsbury in his first game as the starting point guard. Adam will not forget when the team beat Fitchburg in their home gym for the first time since 1992. In this game he tossed in 14 points and played his best defense. Tom Valeri looks back to see himself leading the team in tough defense against a strong Leominster team. This year's team was run by a new coaching staff consisting of Head Coach Tom Gibbons, and assistants Dave Carnarcioli and Todd Grieb.

Girls' Indoor Track

This year's team finished the season strong. Senior captain Jill Portanova sums up the season saying, "We had an undefeated season all the way from the dual meet victories to the state championship." She praises the team's head coach, Brian Wallace, by saying, "We would be nothing without him. He was our foundation and inspiration in all we accomplished" Wallace was assisted by Tim Boilard, Marty Jordan and Elmer Ream. The team contained seven seniors. Captain Leighann Carpenter was the 600 meter state champion and she had the 6th fastest time in the nation. Captain Kate Ferris ran the 45 yard dash in 5.9 seconds. Jill came back from a fractured ankle and led the 4 x 800. Deb Joslin was the 1000 meter District Champion. Captain Lindsay Monroe was an incredible hurdler. She was the shortest in the state and had bruises and cuts as a result but her determination overpowered the obstacles and she never let it phase her. The team will not forget Marcy Crowley fitting 9 people in her chevy NOVA, or the support and comfort Christina Tashjian provided the team with always lending a shoulder to cry. She worked her hardest throughout the season. The girls will never forget their track nicknames, the tradition of wearing French braids in their hair for each meet or having pasta parties before the big meets.

MVP: Kate Ferris; Coach's Award: Jill Portanova, Lindsay Monroe & Leighann Carpenter

They had a solid season going 5-2 in dual meets, and they have the potential to be League and Central Mass Champions next year.

Boys' Indoor Track

Our team finished the season with a record of 5-2. The team was led by the efforts of their eight senior team members, Dave Hanaford, Jay Hanaford, Gary Menin, Tony Hunt, Peter Warrington, Joe Bigelow, Vladamier Ariskin and Joe Duke. Our team was coached by a full coaching staff consisting of Head Coach Brian Wallace, Tim Boilard, Marty Jordan and Elmer Ream, who worked closely with team captains, Joe Duke, Kevin Boehm and Peter Warrington. The team will never forget Dave writing his college essays at the meet, Jay and his FDS, Gary and his "great idea" of running shirtless during a snowstorm, Tony smashing his PR in the two mile, Pete making everyone carry his gloves during the runs, Joe Ricolaus competing in the 4 x 200 at the Coaches Invitational and Bigelow competing in the 4 x 200 at the Coaches Invitational and setting his PR in the process or Joe Duke stress fracturing his leg, yet still managing to run a sub 38 sec 300. Significant contributions were also added to the teams overall performance by Joel Legare who set new records for both the State Class A Meet and in the State Coach's Meet, and James Sullivan who placed 6th in the State meet. Senior Peter Warrington ended this year's season saying, "our team did the best we could to follow in the footsteps of our proceeding teams of being League and District champions. Although we did not achieve those goals, we accomplished our own individual goals that were equally important. Running in the halls, running through snowstorms, never ending meets at the stuffy Marlboro track, early Saturday mornings and our teammates will be in our memories

Gymnastics

Our team finished up the season with a record of 0-10. This does not accurately reflect all the hard work. The team had only three seniors members, Captain Andrea Pelligrino, Cordula Hahn, who was a foreign exchange student from Germany, and Captain Brittany Minor. Andrea looked back on the season saying, "The season was rough at times but through all out laughs we made it. Always work your very best and you'll earn your 'Scooby Snacks'! If you don't try and you don't smile, we'll feed you prunes! Watch out for bus drivers, but enjoy the bus trips. It's all about the singing, subway, and the pints of ice cream! Who said gymnasts don't eat?! Winter Carnival 2000 "We Are the Champions"! To the entire team, Viel Gluk and to Cordula, Guten Tag Cordula! We'll miss you." The team would also like to thank their coach, Barbara Lewis for her dedication because without her they would not have had a team.

Wrestling

Our wrestling team, which had only recently been added to Wachusett's winter sports program, ended their season with a record of 3-9. The team was coached by Head Coach Bill Long and Pat Leonard. The captains were senior Scott White and junior Justin Raevsky. The team worked hard the entire season and never gave up. There was no principal player on the team but each player had a stand out performance at some point during the season. At the Hudson Tourney Brian Lonergan placed 2nd. He also earned 3rd place at the Gardner Tourney and 1st place at the Leominster Tourney. Justin also placed 1st at the Leominster Tourney while Adam Marsh placed 3rd. At the sectional tournament Justin Clouthier placed 6th and Steve lynch placed 7th. The team collectively had an outstanding meet against Milford. No other team in the league has beaten the Milford team in the last nine years, but out team stole a victory from them.

Brian says, "I play anywhere anytime" and Matt asks, "Where's my nutshell?" The team was coached by a new staff consisting of Head Coach Mark Herlity, Tim Carney and Paul Connor. Matt, Chris and Zach Shanley were named to the Conference All Star team and Matt and Chris played in the All Star game. The team had a good season making the district finals.

Basketball Cheerleaders

Our cheerleading squad had a very successful season this year. The squad contained five seniors, Ann Masterman, Melissa Mellor, Sydney Mierzejewski, Kelli Waska and Bonnie Wetzel who worked hard to make it a season to remember. The team was led by its captains, Ann and Sydney, who worked with Coach Claudette White. They successfully competed in numerous tournaments and invitationals throughout the course of the season. They received third place at the Holy Name Invitational, first place at the David Prouty Invitational, and first place at the Central Regional Tournament in Framingham, which qualified them for States. They also competed in the Milford Invitational and the League Tournament.

Gettin Rowdy

Hockey Cheerleading squad put in many hard hours of practice preparing to support out hockey team this season. Molly Dudley, the only senior on the squad, was a key part of the squad and provided the strong upperclassman leadership that pulled the girls together. Junior captain, Jenn Laing states, "this years hockey team was truly a great team and acted as one, on and off the ice. Cheering for a team that truly is a team makes our job all the more rewarding. Our group of girls dedicated themselves not only to the cheering team but also to their boys on the hockey team and made this season such a success." The team was coached and guided by Coach Tara O'Keefe whose dedication to the squad helped them to accomplish their ambitions for the season.

Girls' Softball

Our softball team closed its season with a record of 8-12. The team captains were the only two seniors on the team, Krystal DiMatteo and Heather (Trout) Bassett, who aided the efforts of Coach Jen Burton. The team will remember this season because they beat North Middlesex . . . twice, Kelly Christenson put a worm in her mouth for skittles and the team threw a baby shower for mother-to-be Coach Burton. Krystal relfects on the season saying, "Overall we had a good season. Everyone on the team played the games with 110% all the time. All of the hard practices that we had payed off in the end. Our five game winning streak proved to us that we could win every game this season. We had tough teams to play, but we played our hardest 'til the end."

This sprin season, we accomplished what no team has been able to do in the 13 years by winning the District Class A meet. We'll always remmber running to the reservoir, DP and To-Po, Valeri-isms, "We're Not Gonna Take It", tanning on the mats, and the Team Pool. We won't forget the freshman, sophmores, and juniors who helped us become the best unified team we could be. We thank the girl's team and parents for all their support. We alo thank caoches George Paradis and especially Brian Wallace who put 110% into our team every season and put up with all our BS. The team gregariousness and untily of our team has made it one of the most memorable seasoans in our history. To all track

Girls' Tennis

Our girls tennis team had a successful season ending with a record of 11-5. This year's team had only two seniors, who also acted as captains, Meghan Cronin and Stephanie Sigler. Their season was marked by Steph's killer dropshot, Meg's serve and backhand and the team's big Algonquin upset! Meg and Steph worked closely with first year coach, Laurie Cassingino. Meg wanted to thank her by saying, "Thanks for everything. You're awesome! Keep practicing your speeches! Double K this summer at CC." The team captains look back on the season remembering, "Shotgun Bang, What's up with that thang! Shoop!" and "TARZAN". They remember the brown noser is Mr. Lewis' office, Cat Dung-CS and how Daley, Lynn, Andrea and Meg are a great chorus line. Fruit cake and her Dutch dancing, their pizza fest game, "Ceiling Girl" and the missing secret psych mystery will also be found memories. Steph and Meg would like to tell the underclassman that they will be missed, but they will both take you all to college with them in their hearts.

Boys' Tennis

Our boys tennis team ended their season in first place with a record of 15-3. The team practiced hard everyday and their efforts can be seen in this record. The team was instructed by first year Wachusett coach, Tony Bresette and "Mrs. Coach" with the help of senior captain, Dan McPhee. The team also included three other seniors Kevin Sullivan, Ross Lucivero and Nick Hobbs. Dan reflects on the season saying, "We had another winning season this year with our new coach. Ross Lucivero, Greg Lowder and myself led the team in singles action. Doubles players included Kevin Sullivan, Noah Gardner, Adam Bullock, Colin Donahoe, Nick Hobbs and lastly Richie Herbst. Doubles teams made a huge contribution with sweet wins, especially against Doherty. Suuuuuullly."

Volleyball

This was Wachusett's first year having a boys volleyball team. The team proved themselves worthy by finishing the season with a noteworthy record of 13-4 and a number one ranking. The team contained seven seniors. Joe Sullivan will be remembered for being ... Joe Sullivan. Matt "Head" Hollingshead is from California, enough said. Karl "Legend" Anderson was the setter god. Erik Matisiak was best known for hitting on coach's little sister. Mike "Heinrich" Rene' was the "Super Slide". Andrew Watson was God and Chris "Stinger" Hastings was the sting of the stinger. The team was encouraged by its captains, seniors Joe Sullivan and Matt Hollingshead and junior Andre' Szumylo. Coach Katie Durham took on the task of teaching this new group of players and she proved to be very successful. In the words of Joe Sullivan, "she taught us how to actually play volleyball." Durham was assisted by Brady Townsend refered to by the team members as the man behind the serves. After one season the team has enjoyed many fun times and when they look back on the season they will always remember, "Andrew Watson High", "spike it in the fat kids face", "Tool", and the fact that Carl is an "adult film" star. They will wonder "Who is Andre' Shimilco?," and never forget hearing "I hate Natick", treats made by coach after winning games and of course playing volleyball.

SOME OF US CHALLENGED OUR MINDS WITH A GAME OF CHESS, OTHERS PLAYED A LITTLE ULTIMATE FRISBEE, OR HELPEDORGANIZE A BLOOD DRIVE. WHAT-EVER WE TOOK PART IN WE ALWAYS HAD A GOOD TIME. WE HAVE LEARNED TEAM WORK AND DEDICATION, AND WORKED HARD AT ACTIVITES NOT SOLELY FOUND IN A CLASSROOM. WE'VE BEEN ABLE TO SHAREOUR TALENTS AND GIFTS WITHOTH-ERS AND LEARN ABOUT EACH OTHER, BUT MOST OF ALL WE'VE HAD FUN WHILE LET-TING OURSELVES SHINE IN A DIFFERENT LIGHT.

There are no natural born ballplayers.

No man has ever entered the world

With the innate ability to throw a baseball 100 miles an hour.

Or hit a 600 foot home run with each swing.

What ballplayers are born with is desire.

Desire to work.

Desire to sweat.

Desire to learn.

Desire to have someone watch him someday and say,

'Look, now there's a natural born ballplayer.'

Colophon

The Mountaineer is an annual publication by the Yearbook staff at Wachusett Regional High School, 1401 Main Street, Holden, Massachusetts 01520. The towns served by the high school are Holden, Paxton, Princeton, Rutland, and Sterling. The book was distributed to the class of 2000 at a class social held in mid August of 2000.

The book was printed in Winston-Salem, North Carolina at the Jostens/Hunter Publishing Division. The press run was 550 copies. The cover was designed for our staff by Rick Brooks of the Creative Resources Department of Jostens, and by the company representative, Arnie Lohmann.

Our cover is a school-designed Truelife Combo lithograph. The base material cover is Grain (#1175) with the background of Elephant Hide BB and the addition of mix-to-match inks. The litho-process cover has film lamination for protection. The trim size is 8.5 by 11 and Smythe-sewn. It is wrapped around 120-point binder's board. The school follows the Accent Program. The front and back endsheets are from the Cross Point paper line and are orchid (#299).

The paper used throughout the book is 80 pound gloss, printed with standard black ink. Sixteen pages were printed using the standard four color process and eight pages were printed using tempo 272 purple as spot color. The fonts used as the major type style include Palatino (#141), Palatino bold (#143), Script MT Bold (#289), and Klang MT(#321). Other assorted type fonts were used at the discretion of the page editor.

A current events supplement, World Beat (produced by Jostens) has been sewn in at the end of the book after page 280 followed by a special Millennium Review.

Senior portraits were taken by Wayne Myers and his associates of Myers Studio, Sterling, MA, the designated official yearbook photographer. (Other professional photographers did some of the senior portraits.) Athletics (both team and candids), clubs organizations, faculty, and major school events were photographed at no charge to the yearbook by Myers Studio. The studio also generously provided the yearbook staff with film, developing, and equipment at no additional cost. Additional athletic, event and candid photographs were taken by members of the yearbook photography staff as well as donated by various members of the class of 2000, and the advisors. O'Connor School Portraits photographed the underclassmen for student ID's and made these photos available to the yearbook

The approximate cost of printing the book is $32,000. This figure includes publishing costs, freight charges, shipment of materials to North Carolina, color candid photography expenses (purchase of film and developing costs), and other supplies. The per copy cost to the public is $50.00. Monies are raised through an assessment to the Senior Class per student, a parent ad and patron/sponsor solicitation campaign, and the proceeds from two soda machines in the gym corridor. These 280 pages are representative of the entire Wachusett student body and their community.

Special Thanks!!!!

Putting together a book the size of the Mountaineer would not be possible without the hard work of a dedicated staff and the help of some extra special people that I would like to acknowledge here.

As usual my first round of thanks must go to Wayne and Bev Myers of Myers Studio for their time and commitment. This year they went beyond their usual greatness of shooting the majority of our senior portraits, all our special events, and special groups. They also went the extra mile providing valuable time training a large group of student photographers. This allowed for many more students to have an active role in creating their memories. Your hard work and reassurance kept us on time for all our deadlines. It is my hope that the senior classes will continue to support Myers Studio - it sure makes my job a whole lot easier. It is the commitment of Myers Studio that enabled us to produce a fine quality book of which both the staff and recipients can be proud.

Secondly, thanks go to Arnie Lohmann, our company representative from Jostens Publishing. Arnie continues to be a strong moral support for our entire staff and provide the encouragement and prodding we sometimes need to keep up with our deadlines. Also from Jostens, we thank Rick Brooks from the Creative Resources Department who once again took a verbal concept and turned it into a masterpiece with the creation of the cover.

New on our staff this year was Donna Bradway, Financial Advisor. Her attention to detail and ability to deal with a crazed bunch (okay a crazed advisor) kept things running smoothly all year. I want to thank Donna also for learning her away around some of the school's databases to provide us with needed information as well as seeing us through our first year of direct marketing. Thanks for all your phone calls - made and received - and your fine organizational skills that pulled everything together. Additional thanks go to Amy Kathman and Della Ritland for helping us attain numerous class lists and labels, as well as fielding questions and squeezing us into Guidance News at every call.

Thanks Maura Goddard who didn't desert us. We are especially thankful for your expert advice and talent with the parent ads. My own thanks to you for all your help with the proofs. I hope you did indeed get a laugh or two out of it. Working with friends like you always makes the job easier.

MY STAFF!!! You make it all worth while. I've never seen a more dedicated group. Every time I thought we weren't going to make it there you guys were sweating it out right along with me - but it all got done! Extra Special Thanks go to Emily Heininger our dedicated and talented Editor-in-Chief who was always the last to leave and stayed through to the bitter end. I hope your college yearbook staff scoops you up because at this point you could probably put the book together yourself. I especially thank you for tackling each and every task with a smile and kind disposition. Second in command, Amy Hoglund, was a great help during crunch time and proof editing and always made us laugh even when she didn't feel like laughing herself. Our Senior Section Editors, Lauren and Erin put together a super new look forthe section which, I'll have to admit, I was skeptical of at first but you had faith, and now I see the great results. Christina who had one of the more difficult deadlines every single one - I want to thank you for your commitment and "never give up" attitude. I've never seen someone with so many school projects handle things with such ease. Two other dedicated editors who gave more than just what their sections required were Stephanie and Alissa who jumped in when needed even after long hours spent on their own projects. And lastly, a special thanks to editors and staff members who went the extra mile from beginning to end: Lia, Erin M., Krystal, Beth, Nicole, andLynne.

To the class of 2000, please give thanks to the above mentioned people as well as those staff members listed on page 243. Years from now you will realize what all their sacrificed weekends, vacations, sleep, study balls and social lives meant. Enjoy your memories!!!

Keep on shining, Lynn M. Leschke, Mountaineer Advisor

The leaders of my shining stars: Emily Heininger and Amy Hoglund.

It's been a long, hard four years, but we have finally made it. As we walk through the halls, close our lockers, and drive out of the parking lot for the last time as high school students, we take with us many memories we have collected. With the help of teachers, parents, and friends we have become stronger and more mature young adults. We now face many choices and decisions, but whatever we do, wherever we go, and however we get there we'll never forget our Wachusett experience. It is now time to look ahead and shine into the future.
